Question:	Comment on the overall effectiveness of the instructor for this course.
Response Rate:	100.00% (2 of 2)
1	There was no syllabus provided for this class and Mr Pawar did not tell us what grades we made on assignments until the midterm and final grade.
2	Although new to CU, Dr. Pawar brought his own style and flair to statistics. Thanks to him I've been offered a full time research position!

Response Rate:	100.00% (1 of 1)
1	I enjoy learning about the subject material in this class, but Dr. Pawar doesn't always seem the most enthusiastic about teaching the subject, which can make it a bit difficult to take in everything he is saying. I also believe that our review classes before our exams could be better - I did not feel completely prepared for the last exam that we had, and even after going to office hours I felt as though there was a lot of information that he could have shared to better prepare students for the exam. Finally, students are not able to keep track of how we are performing in his class because he does not post our grades on Moodle, which can definitely be frustrating because I have no idea what grade I have in his class at this point. I don't want to be surprised when final grades go in, and I want to know if I need to increase my grade before the end of the semester.

Question:	Comment on the overall effectiveness of the instructor for this course.
Response Rate:	50.00% (1 of 2)
1	The instructor is typically unclear with his expectations and tends to forget details that pertain to our course versus another Junior Seminar he teaches. Other than a few broad instructions, a clear rubric is not given for assignments, and he does not respond to emails. Communication with him is poor, as he does not always give clear answers to questions.

1	Pawar to me isn't a great instructor. I have emailed him over 10 times throughout this semester and he hasn't replied back to none of them. He doesn't use the moodle feature he doesn't give feedback on anything. Now I have to retake this seminar class over again because of him. Claflin University please fix this issue fast because I don't want someone else in this situation.

1	This is my second time taking a course with Dr. Pawar, and I must express my sincere appreciation for his patience and dedication. Dr. Pawar's classes are exceptionally hands-on, providing ample opportunities for interaction and learning. He consistently encourages feedback, whether it's in the form of comments or questions, fostering an environment of open communication and collaboration.
2	Dr. Pawar has displayed great teaching skills; his efforts to create a healthy learning atmosphere, devotion to academic success, and contributions to the university are admirable. He is always prepared for each class and gives constructive feedbacks. I am typically able to express a high level of satisfaction with the clarity of instruction, relevancy of course content, and accessibility of resources. He embodies the best professional and ethical standards, improving students' academic experiences. He demonstrates a genuine interest in student achievement by providing critical criticism and support to help them progress academically. His high level of reliance is one of the reasons I chose him as one of my committee members for my research thesis. I commend all his efforts toward my academic success.

1	Since this course is a direct followup to the previous Senior Seminar, he should have possession of the same information and materials as our instructor for the previous Senior Seminar. However, this was not the case, which led to confusion and misunderstandings. Additionally, when assignments are given, he provides vague instructions in the beginning but defines clearer expectations when the deadline is almost present. An example of this is providing a mediocre sample paper which did not contain required sections, only to provide an actual template the day before it is due.

1	Previously I haven't had much experience using R Code but this professor made it easy for me to learn. The instructions are clear and concise. We practice how to use R Code for a particular test like T test or correlation using various examples . The exams are very similar to what we learned in class there's no surprise or guess work.
2	Instructor made the course easy to understand.
